

SUPPLY LIST

Please note, you do not need to have all of these things! The exercises included in the Creative Elements Challenge can easily be adapted to suit other supplies.

Note: Some of these links are Amazon affiliate links, which means I may receive a small commission (at no cost to you) if you make a purchase through a link.

- Sketchbook/art journal. If you are using paint, I would suggest a journal with watercolour or mixed media paper in it. I am using a watercolour journal from the Hand Book Journal Company and a handmade journal made by Wendy Solganik.
- Palette, water container, paper towel, scissors, palette knife and old credit/store card. I also love Princeton Catalyst Art Tools.
- Brushes. For watercolour, I use Princeton Neptune and for mixed media, I use Dina Wakley and Royal & Langnickel.
- Magazines or other papers for collage.
- Gel Matte Medium or gluestick for adhering collage papers. I use Golden brand.
- Selection of paints in colours of your choice (watercolour or acrylic). I am using the following brands:
Daniel Smith Watercolours
Royal Talens Amsterdam Acrylic Ink
Daler Rowney FW Acrylic Ink
Golden Heavy Bodied Acrylic
- Painter's tape or artist masking tape (optional for masking areas of the paper). I am using Ex-Press It masking tape.
- Mark-making supplies (e.g. pastels, paint pens, pencils, water-soluble crayons). I love Posca paint pens with the 1-MR tip.
- Items from around the home such as feathers, bark, twigs and coffee/tea.

To find out more details about the supplies that I routinely use, head to laurahornart.com/art-supplies